SLEEPING SICKNESS CURE.

Dr. Spence, of Liverpool School Tells of Success of the Experiments.

Dr. David Spence, of the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine, who arrived on the Oceanic to-day, said that that institution has been making experiments on animals, as a result of which it has found a cure for "sleeping sickness," the well-known tropical disease which has been an especial study of Dr. Koch, who was in this country some months ago.

Dr. Spence said that expeditions are now under way in the Congo for the purpose of trying the treatment on na-'It is a combined treatment." said D

"It is a combined treatment," said Dr. Spence, "the first treatment being made with atoxyl, and the second being a treatment of intermuscular injection of bicloride of mercury."

Dr. Spence is to visit the Rockefeller Medical Institute, and the Harvard Bacteriological School, as well as several other medical institutions in this country.

The couple ran away and were married at The girl-wife's father was unable to locate her for two months afterward, when annulment proceedings were begun. On Oct. 6, 1908, the Supreme Court annuiled the marriage and the young bride went back to live with her family. Within a year a daughter was born

> Prior to the annulment the girl met Archibald Douglas, who had been with her brother in the Twenty-seventh Regment, Inniskillen Fusiliers, in the Boer war. The young soldier and the girl She did not, she testified, intend to do fell in love and were married on Nov. 21 last in Jersey City. According to Douglas, his wife was in constant fear of losing her child. He says that se or iosing her child. He says that some time ago two men who represented themselves as agents of the Casano family offered the girl $1,000 to surren-der the baby, which she indignantly re-

Eugene Burg and Maurice Baumfeld are the two directors in whose hands are held the reins of the theatre. Between them trouble has been brewing for many months, and to-day came the announcement that the storm has

All the trouble is over the two princinal actresses of the playhouse. Mme Ilse Van Tasso, a fascinating favorite from Vienna, who had been especially engaged to impersonate dashing, temperamental roles, and Miss Hedwig Reicher, whose specialty is sentimental heroines or heavy tragedy queens. The former actress has allied herself with Eugene Burg: the latter with Mauric Baumfeld, and each believes hersel fitted to fill the part of star attraction There has been a merry little squabbl since the beginning of the season.

The management at every opportun ity avails itself of the privilege of sending notes of dismissal to the mem bers of the company who have been imported from Germany.

When it was announced that this week, Bernstien's " The Claw" was to be the attraction, Madame Van Tasse prepared to receive the principal part that of "Toto," a Parisian adventuress of dashing personality. Miss Reicher was equally convinced that the role would be hers, and confided to her associates that she looked forward to playing it as her greatest histronic playing it as her greatest histronic achievement. And Miss Reicher received the role, much to the chagrir and astonishment of many members of the company.

What is taking place at the New German Theatre may be best described by Madame Van Tasco, who to-day, with flashing eyes and cheeks red with anger, told an Evening World reporter all about the row.

"It is ridiculous. I. only I. should be Toto," she said. "Mr. Burg says so. I Mr. Emil Lind, the leading actor, agrees with him, but because of favorism I am denied the part.

WOMAN KILLED IN A FEUD FIGHT

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky., Jan. 9 .-

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky., Jan. 9.—
Miss Ethel Ransom, aged twenty-five years, was killed and five other persons injured, two probably fatally, as a result of a feud fight on the streets of Williamstown to-day.

There had been bitter feeling for a long time between the Lantern and Ransom families, and it led to trouble when they met at a dance given last night at the home of Wes Barns, two miles east of Williamstown. The first outbreak was suppressed, but later the men met on the street. Angry words were exchanged, and then pistols were drawn.

Miss Ransom was killed by a bullet, her brother Sidney was shot below the heart and above the eye and his recovery is doubtful, as also is that of Charles Clark, who was shot through the lungs. Grover Clark suffered a broken collar-bone. Thomas Turner was beaten and Emitt Homan carries a bullet in his right arm.

Grover and George Lantern, both of whom escaped any serious injury, are in jall to-day for participating in the fight.
